

From: [REDACTED]
To: Legal Affairs and Community Safety Committee
Subject: voting
Date: Friday, 10 April 2015 8:59:13 AM

To Whomsoever,

I am concerned about the prospect of removing the requirement for adequate voter identification at election time. Such removal begs the question: Is there election fraud? Are some voters using others names, even deceased names? How can anyone be sure? Providing identification is not the slightest problem for many activities; why should it trouble voters?

Please, retain some certainty that voter fraud is being completely eliminated.

Yours sincerely,

Errol Wiles.

[REDACTED] Babinda, 4861.