Dear Sir/Madam,

I share my living time between NSW and Queensland and agreed with the requirement for voters to show ID. I am perplexed learning that actions are in hand to repeal this requirement. I support the requirement being expanded throughout Australia.

Please retain the current requirement for voters to provide proof of identity to ensure the integrity of the electoral system by minimising the possibility of voter fraud. Queensland is leading the way on this requirement so please keep it as an example to the rest of Australia.

Thank you.
