Dear Sirs/Ladies,

I hereby lodge an objection to the proposed changes to the Electoral & other Legislation Amendment Bill 2015.

I regard the proposed changes as dangerous and I think back to the days of Bob Hawke when Bob Hawkes' son was found guilty of having made multiple votes in a multiplicity of names in order to have Labor win at that election.

The public is in general honest. But there are individuals from all parties ... Labour and the LNP and from the minor parties such as the Greens ... who will do anything to have their candidate win. It is therefore essential that voters provide proof of identity when casting their vote.
