Dear Sir/Ma'am

I am writing to request that the government retain the current requirement for voters to provide proof of identity before casting the vote. This process is widely accepted in the present society and I do feel that it provides a more transparent and less costly way of maintaining the integrity of the vote- and minimising voter fraud.

Thank you for your consideration to this important detail for the preservation of fair democratic processes

Sincerely,

Dear Mr Mark Furner MP

Dear Sir/Ma'am,

I am writing to respectfully ask you to retain the requirement for Presentation of Voter ID before a person casts his/her vote.

I believe that the general population was relieved to have this protection and for the sense of protection from fraud it should be retained-

It is a system which requires little additional resource- and the benefits are high. In today's society, this is an acceptable practice and for cases of integrity presents no real difficulty - but easy recourse- should a dispute arise.

Thank you for your consideration

Sincerely, Sylvia Huxham

Yours Sincerely,
