Dear Committee Members,

My Mother was a politically engaged Queenslander until just before she died this year at the age of 103. At the time of her death and for many she did not have a valid driving licence or passport or any other identifying card other than a pension card. She would have been most distressed to find herself cut out of the democratic life of Queensland. Many other elderly would find themselves in the same situation as would other groups. Democracy should be inclusive!
Thank you, Carolyn Willadsen
