Subject: Submission - Electoral Reform Bill - Voter says NO!!!
Date: Friday, 17 January 2014 12:26:56 PM

Between "biker" laws & the G20 house-arrest system, there has been MORE THAN ENOUGH tampering by this government to restrict people's rights, movements, identities & associations/associates, in the state of QLD, without trying to reintroduce a different kind of ID-gerrymander for future elections! Are we to hear the term "Papers, please?" at the ballot box next time? Seig Heil, Mr Bleijie!

By making it harder to vote with restrictive ID measures, especially affecting many disabled, elderly & Indigenous Queenslanders, I'm sure this government hopes to eliminate many of the voters who may vote against them, all in the name of "security"... This is a repressive & unnecessary idea that should be given no quarter in a so-called fair & free democracy.

Pull your heads in within government ranks & stop WASTING OUR MONEY on your LNP CONservative born-to-rule fetishes... >:(
