It would seem the LNP gov is trying to bring in Identity cards by stealth

Just how does one prove their identity without a photo

Many do not have drivers licenses

'Many do not have Birth certs ,but even if they did what proof does THAT offer
The same goes for medicare centre link or any other form of identification OR does the proposal work on the 10point system where every time you vote at a STATE election in QLD one will need to take a wade of identification papers which will then will require long waiting times to check ?

How many extra staff will this require at the booths?

WE are continually told the poor state of QLS's finances ,yet this Gov thinks THIS gross waste of money is a good step

How many people could it defranchise??

Manly of course , the poor, the uneducated & similar groups

Perhaps THAT is the REAL aim

Get rid of those who probably never vote LNP!!

Perhaps the LNP think s like som US Republicans They don't vote for us so why should we do anything for them!!

Time the Gov got on with the real job,not just thinking up useless time wasting ideas!!
