Subject: Changes to ID requirements for voting
Date: Wednesday, 15 January 2014 8:20:13 PM

Please do not make changes that will disadvantage those who have every right to vote, but will not be able to meet the ID requirements due to race, disability and or circumstance not of their own choosing, such as age or cultural heritage. To date, there has been no evidence to suggest that voting fraud due to multiple vote casting under one name has occurred.

Electronic voting will end such risk if there is a genuine need to address fraud of this nature. Nos system is perfect, so there is no justification to introduce a system that would disadvantage the most vulnerable.

Conservative governments have a tendency to be tricky and these proposed changes are a means of reducing the votes non-conservative parties would receive. You really are being naughty.
