Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

The political and electoral systems in place in Queensland do not adequately protect the rights, liberties and livelihoods of Queensland's most vulnerable. Until such time as more sweeping institutional changes take place, we must take action to ensure these rights are protected, valued and promoted.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

I support a well-researched, legally-sound and pioneering Human Rights Act. We can't have a weak or unambiguous charter. We need something meaty, something that everyone can call upon and think of as a Queensland icon. This of course needs a full complement of executive processes to accompany the Act - expanded self-litigants' service, a Queensland Human Rights Ombudsman to investigate abuses of human rights of their own prerogative, Queensland Human Rights Commission with broad advocacy powers (with dedicated Deputy Commissioners for Abilities, Gender, LGBTIQA, Youth, Elder, ATSI, Cultural Communities, Spiritual Communities, Employment Rights, and Future Generations), and the promotion of "corporate social responsibility" as a foundational element of organisations' structures.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?Respondent skipped this question
