Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No.

There is no one place where a Queenslanders rights are spelled out, and no defined penalties for someone using a position of authority to deny or infringe on those rights.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes, but only if it requires ratification by a binding referendum once completed and includes penalties for those that infringe those rights.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

VLAD laws denying freedom of association and effectively making groups of people guilty until proven innocent, a reversal of due process. By observation only, people in the US having a bill of rights but little recourse against those that infringe those rights when they use the legislative process to do so.
