Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No, Indigenous people still suffer by far too many deaths in custody.

As the Universal Declaration of Human Rights states in Article 3., "Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.". This is more definitely not the case of how refugees are treated by the Australian government.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes, the UNHR put it succinctly "...the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world,:"

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

Article 9 "No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile." I sincerely wish that people would not be sent back into detention. It is absolutely non-contestable that detention, especially for children, is extremely harmful.
