Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

I believe they are poorly protected. Many of the rights laid out in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights are not covered by the federal constitution, and are enshrined in law's which are subject to the fickle whims of elected politicians.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

I do. Although not as hard to remove as a constitutionally enshrined bill of rights, an Act of this nature would be hard to repeal without a high degree of political risk.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

My father was intimidated by police during the Joh era into leaving the state because of the fact he chose to exercise his right to protest. The recent VLAD laws also show how a government can pass laws with the potential to violate human rights if they can think up a plausible or expedient justification.
