Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No. Human rights are not enshrined in law. Equally concerning is that the last state government introduced laws curtailing freedom of association supposedly to clamp down on criminal bikies.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes, everyone has the right to be protected under the law, especially the vulnerable. It needs to act as a voice for those that may not have much of a say in their rights. A Human Rights Act may also potentially protect the population from corrupt, authoritarian governments.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

Several situations. The treatment in many cases of asylum seekers, people with disabilities, the elderly, the unemployed. I also had a former work colleague who was forced out of her job because she did not possess a university degree. She had been in the job for five years.
