Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No, there are several archaic laws that inhibit people exerting their human rights. The fact that "gay panic" is still a defence for murder, abortion remains in the criminal code, Catholic hospitals can impose their beliefs on patients in the public system.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes, clarity is always beneficial

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

I've seen the removal of bodily autonomy in the medical system, primarily by religious public health care providers. They don't give information or options to patients because of the organisations religious affiliations, contrary to best practice.
