Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No, because Australia doesn't have any form of national human rights protection. Some states have laws that fill this role, however Queensland is not one of those states, allowing abuses of power like the Bikie laws to go through.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes, of course! Who wouldn't want their human rights protected!?

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

When people who ride motorbikes are arrested for hanging out together. When protesting against mining interests is legislated against. When speaking out against human rights violations in detention camps results in 2 years' jail time. When whistleblower protection laws are rescinded to discourage speaking out against corruption.
