Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes. A well-functioning democracy, an independent judiciary and legal profession, a free press, robust institutions, principled decision-makers and a commitment to the Rule of Law are all the protection that human rights need.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Absolutely not. A Human Rights Act would undermine the independence of the judiciary by vesting political decision-making power in the Courts. See the collected works of James Allan and Jeremy Waldron

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

None
