Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

Define what "human rights" you are talking about before you have any discussion on what's protected and what isn't - and what needs to be protected and from whom.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Are you prepared to let the politicians say what rights you can or cannot have and to let them do that through legislation that can be changed at any time by any political party in power? What the politicians can give they can also take away. The only safe way to provide for a bill of rights is to have them embedded in the Constitution and only altered by a referendum. But that raises the question of who is going to grant these "rights" in the first place?

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?
