

From: [REDACTED]
To: Legal Affairs and Community Safety Committee
Subject: Bill of rights submission
Date: Friday, 15 April 2016 9:44:28 AM

To whom it concerns.

As an Australian born citizen with no criminal record I would like to know how I can be refused the basic human right to be able to associate with fellow citizens and friends who also do not have criminal records.

I would like explained in general terms how I can be denied the right to freely associate with another human being, especially when we are not breaking any laws or are no threat to the community.

Regards

Darryl Goiser

Concerned Citizen

Sent from Samsung Mobile