Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No. Particularly in relation to the environment. Only money talks. Right to fair trial also inadequately protected.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes. But only after comprehensive consultation as it could be more detrimental to pass an act with inadequate protections.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

Indigenous people, as the original custodians of this country have many inadequate protections. The Queensland government garnished their wages and hasn't paid sufficient restitution.

But for me passing an act is as much about the symbolism of that as anything else, showing human rights are important to Queensland. We should have one act that mirrors the provisions of the major human rights treaties we've signed at a federal level. (ICCPR, CERD, CEDAW, ICESCR, CRC, And the covenant on the rights of indigenous peoples).
