Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No, there are currently not enough legal protections for peoples rights which is worrying especially since Queensland has a unicameral parliament and a history of government enforcing repressive policies.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes, I believe it will safeguard democracy and human rights in the state and reign in possible abuses of power from the government. I think it's also particularly important due to Queensland's large indigenous population.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

Police brutality and deaths in custody of Aboriginal people continue to be a huge problem and a human rights act would help to protect Aboriginal peoples rights and give them legal avenues to fight against unfair and discriminatory treatment and human rights abuses.
