Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

Not remotely. Decades of living in Queensland, under Joh, under Newman and even under Labor where the excesses of the conservatives weren't addressed. The lack of rights of landowners to determine the right to deny access to mining companies, among too many issues to count.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Of course. There are too few protections for individuals in Australia at a state or federal level and in Queensland particularly with an unintended unicameral system we have had a succession of governments who have little to no checks on their powers. A Human Rights Act would be an important bulwark against government power and a vital guide to bureaucrats sculpting policy.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

Landowners unable to deny access to their property by mining and gas companies.
