Q5: Do you think that human rights are properly protected in Queensland? Why/why not?

No, the system within Queensland makes it easy for governments with a large majority to push through whatever legislation they want. Which means a very high risk of harmful laws being implemented.

Apart from having an upper house within parliament, a Human Rights Act is the best action we can take to protect all of our rights and to ensure all future laws are compared to a rights based framework.

Q6: Do you support the introduction of a Human Rights Act in Queensland? Why/why not?

Yes, since there is no action from the Federal government to bring in a national Human Rights Act it is up to Queenslanders to make sure that our rights are protected.

Q7: Can you think of a situation from your life or someone else's life that shows why Queensland needs a Human Rights Act?

The rights of minority groups in particular are constantly at risk such as the LGBTQI community, Aboriginals and Torres Strait Islanders, Refugees and migrants and people with disabilities.
