

From: phil airey
To: Legal Affairs and Community Safety Committee
Subject: Bill of rights
Date: Thursday, 14 April 2016 6:12:36 PM

To whom it may concern,

I will keep it short. Every Queenslander should be held with the same regard.

Discrimination because of colour, gender identity, sexual preference or religion, should have no place in the modern day Queensland.

It is high time Queensland emerged as a state that is proud of where it is and put the shame of the past to shame.

Sent from Yahoo7 Mail on Android