I support the proposed changes to QLD law to enable the reinstating of Civil Unions and there ceremonies in QLD.

I am disappointed with the continued discrimination continuously faced by same gender couples and believe civil unions, in their capacity to formally recognise same gender relationships, will ease some of the discrimination faced by same gender couples.

I also believe that civil unions offer a non-religiously affiliated formal relationship recognition to any adult relationship, fitting of a state and country that is secular and diverse.

Lastly, I want to get "unioned". I cant get "unioned" until this law is reinstated, so please pass it!

From a QLD constituent who has reflected long and hard and can see no social, legal, economical, environmental or religious reason why Civil Unions should not pass.

Thanks

Olivia Darling
