A submission in relation to proposed amendments to the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991, introduced to Parliament in the Youth Justice (Boot Camp Orders) and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2012. (1 November 2012) in relation to the proposed amendment noted above I object strongly as it is undermining peoples choice to earn a living in there chosen profession which in the state of Queensland is not illegal. How many individuals and professions run businesses out of hotels and motels simply because of the vastness of the state and the need and calling to do so. So i believe this is discriminating against certain individuals and is not consistent with Australian anti-discrimination laws and will open the floodgates for anyone who has a gripe against a individual.
