In 2012, My son was "coward punched" and left unconscious and died the following day. His killer was subsequently tried and convicted of manslaughter and the Judge sentenced him to a firm minimum period of 10 years jail, but yet he was released early. He should have been tried for Murder. Where is the Justice in this and so many other similar cases. A Coward Punch causing Death should be treated as Murder or it will never stop. The Public deserve and demand much better from our Judicial System.
