I found the support I received from the members of the Victims of Crime support team to be above and beyond my expectations. They supported me from the beginning of our ordeal and were there every step of the way. especially my "buddy who was one on one with me for the entire journey. I was kept informed of all that was happening and of what to expect as we headed to the trial at which on both days, I was supported by a member of the team who guided me through the procedures and gave me a shoulder to lean on. I was also grateful for the financial assistance given. Thank you Victims of Crime.
