

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 14
Submitted by: Erin Campbell
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

As a trans person, I am very supportive of parliament finally taking the very simple and straightforward step of letting people control their gender on government identity documents. I look forward to more significant meaningful action to protect trans Queenslanders, particularly children, soon.