Submitter Comments:

I understand that everyone has rights but allowing a male to decide to identify as female and then be able to access public places as a female does not make sense. How can you guarantee the safety of a female in changing rooms say at a public pool or beach whilst showering or getting changed both which require you to be naked. Is it appropriate for your 13 year daughter to get naked in front of a person identifying as female? As a woman in her 50's I would be uncomfortable in this situation. Does the minority override the rights of the majority? I do not support this bill
