Submitter Comments:

I was born a biological female and I absolutely do not agree with my rights as a woman to be taken away and given to someone who was born a biological man. This is abhorrent and unnatural. No other species in this entire planet changes their sex because they "feel" like it. This is interference with nature and it goes against Gods will. The government has no right to change or allow unnatural behaviours to be the norm. Its disgusting and dehumanising. I do not consent to these rights being stripped away from natural born biological men or women.
