

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 150
Submitted by: Patti Burton
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

I support the new bill and think it would give a lot of freedom to trans people which previously wasn't the case. It would provide trans people with the autonomy to make decisions based on which gender feels right for them, and is a step in the right direction towards trans rights and inclusivity.