

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 201
Submitted by: Kel Purcill
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

Trans people have the right to have their lives and deaths recognised in accordance with their true selves, their own wishes and identification. Trans rights are human right, and Queensland can do so much better so easily.