

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 222
Submitted by: Cieran Kent
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

Trans people live difficult lives. This difficulty comes from the intolerance and difficulty of others.

To make these lives easier, simpler, and safer, the state should do everything it can to lower the barriers it puts up. Self-id is an incredibly important step in the right direction, and I support it wholeheartedly. As someone raised in QLD, and always a Queenslander at heart, this change makes me proud of my state