

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 269
Submitted by: Jo Craddy
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

Gender is a constantly changing, and arguably outdated social construct and is not the same as sex, and birth certificates should reflect this. I believe that Queenslanders should have the ability to change the gender on their birth certificate to better match their own gender identity, without having to go through extraneous processes. I also believe that Queenslanders should have the option to remove the gender marker on their birth certificate altogether.