

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 285
Submitted by: Alice Morgan
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

This decision is vitally important to the protection of individual rights. The government has no place in dictating the details of identity documents, simply recording them for accuracy. It is wholly inappropriate to continue the assignment of sex or gender on identity documents.