

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 323
Submitted by: Bonnie Mclean
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

Being able to change your gender on your birth certificate would be beneficial to so many people, especially those who wish to travel. Presenting different to how your birth certification reads is a major road block to many other things. Changing this so that people do not need to access gender affirmation surgeries first (of which cost, and other factors are also a roadblock) would remove a lot of stress for trans and gender non conforming people.