Submitter Comments:

I support the right to self-ID, it has been shown that laws supporting LGBTQI+ rights are linked to a significant decrease in suicide and self-harm rates amongst the community. Trans people and particularly trans women are one of our most vulnerable populations at risk of suicide, self-harm, violent assault, murder, mental health issues, substance abuse, homelessness, and so on. This bill would afford dignity and rights to our trans community and I fully support it.
