

Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Bill 2022

Submission No: 344
Submitted by: Cris Bonquin
Publication: Making the submission and your name public

Submitter Comments:

As someone who advocates for the freedom of all, enabling trans people to be fully be themselves is crucial. They are valuable members of our society just like the rest of us, so we need to treat them as such. Give them their protections, their right to gender-affirming healthcare, and their right to peacefully live in this world.