Greetings.

My name is George Dickson, I am a First Nation citizen of the Bundjalung nation.

This is a submission related to your Youth Justice and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2021.

I feel it needful to point out a number of facts.

You should be aware that the use of electronic monitoring devices is equivalent to a prison sentence and use of it will be considered de-facto imprisonment of a minor.

In relation to your trial of using handheld scanners, it should be noted that stopping a person who is not under arrest for any type of search is assault and the right to use any form of force required to defend themselves from your parliaments violent criminal actions has been reserved.

Your parliament continues its violence against the public of the island of Australia at its own risk. No responsibility will be taken for any loss of property or injury or loss of life your parliament suffer while engaged in these criminal activities.

George Dickson
