I would love to be able to assist more with volunteering at events etc but i am a single parent and have 3 kids in total. I am the primary carer and do all activities, school runs, child related activities and duties and also work 30 hours a week. Sometimes i need to just switch off and not commit to other things as i am already at capacity. Some events are too late eg 5-7pm, or too far. Time is valuable and sometimes , there is not enough.
