It is getting more difficult to attract members and as an association liability insurance has tripled in the last two years. Association is an ex army association to promote communications and a genuine cooperative fellowship between past and present members of all ranks, based on their common and traditional military service and values. It is a volunteer association to fascinate social events and meetings, foster and promote esprit de corps. Care for such memorials committed to our charge. We attend Brisbane Anzac Day Parade, as an association.
