As a member of Apex Australia I feel that service clubs across Australia are struggling to find new members. This includes but is not limited to Apex, Rotary and Lions. These groups are an import and vital part of all Australian communitis as they fill in the gaps of helping the community between sports, schools and churches. May towns have lost there service clubs but they should be embraced more as a place for people of all backgrounds to be able to come together in a safe place and become more involved in their communities. It would be great to see more help and acknowledgement of these kinds of volunteers.
