Anna's Treason

By Raymond A Smyth

Anna Bligh, our illustrious Queensland Premier, has commissioned the Legal, Constitutional and Administrative Review Committee of the Queensland Parliament to 1. draft a preamble for the Queensland Constitution; and 2. develop options for modernising the oaths and affirmations in the Queensland Constitution. That committee is now seeking public input to assist in its inquiry.

The LCARC is the same outfit which pontificated on the Queensland Constitution 2001 without any general discussion, public awareness or referendum and are constituted for the sole purpose of giving a rubberstamp to, and a hint of respectability, to whatever government wants. There has been no outcry from the public for a preamble to our constitution or a change to the oaths. This exercise comes from only one source the government politicians themselves.

The present Oath taken by members of the legislative assembly is as follows:

I,, do sincerely promise and swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II as lawful Sovereign of Australia and to Her heirs and successors, according to law; and I will well and truly serve the people of Queensland and faithfully perform the duties and responsibilities of a member of the Legislative Assembly to the best of my ability and according to law. So help me God!

The Oath which has been with us since the inception of the Queensland division is but a reflection of the Monarch's Coronation Oath which solemnly promises to 'govern Australia according to their respective laws and cause Law and Justice, in Mercy, to be executed in all Her judgements; to maintain the Laws of God and the true profession of the Gospel' all these things she promised to perform and keep so help Her God.

This is the oath that Anna Bligh herself was forced to take before she could take her place on the parliamentary benches as it is indeed her 'duty statement.' I don't suppose she meant a word of it and only took it to gain her share of parliamentary privilege. Now she wants us to join with her in her complete disregard of her oath. This is analogous with a shopgirl attempting to get the customers to side with her in changing her duty statement against her employers stated will.

The Oath is something which is forced on politicians by the people of Queensland, it is not a plaything of politicians and they have no right, or mandate, to attempt to change their duty statement unilaterally or indeed to seduce people to side with them in their treason.

On the first day of January, 1651, Charles II sat on the throne at Scone for his Scottish coronation. The minister officiating that day was the Rev. Robert Douglas who addressed the King in these words: "Sir, you are set down upon the Throne in a very difficult time; I shall therefore put you in mind of a Scriptural expression of a Throne; it is said 'Solomon sat on the Throne of the Lord,' Sir, you are a king, and a king in covenant with the Lord."

"It is the Lord's Throne. Remember that you have a King above you, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, who commandeth Thrones."

"Your Throne is the Lord's Throne, and your people are the Lord's people. Let not your heart be lifted up above your brethren. They are your brethren not only flesh of your flesh, but brethren by covenant with God."

"Your Throne is the Lord's Throne. Beware of making His Throne a Throne of iniquity." "But as the Throne is the Lord's Throne, let the laws be the Lord's Laws, agreeable to His Word." "Lastly, if your Throne be the Throne of the Lord, take a word of encouragement against Throne adversaries. Your enemies are the enemies of the Lord's Throne."

Mrs Bligh, in her characteristic, brutal and dictatorial way, under the self confessed dictates of undisclosed entities is now attempting to emasculate the oaths to make herself the fount of all authority instead of God. Is this the manifestation of the Augustus syndrome?

The gathering of people's submissions to assist in this endeavour is but a sop. A mere theatre meant for the public consumption of those who are informed and for those who are uninformed, an exercise in futility.

An ongoing, informed, open public discussion will not be attempted. Expect the change to occur without general knowledge, but remember her treason.
