

Ms Rosalie Coleman,

23-8-04

To The research Director,
Parliament House
George Street
Brisbane.

In a submission to your feedback form , for a preamble to be added to the Queensland Constitution .I , as an Australian citizen believe that a change to our constitution is totally wrong.

The present constitution has served the people of this country since 1867 that is almost 150 years.

For any change in the constitution to take place a referendum must be put to the eligible voting people of the state.

In closing the answer on the feedback form is a definite no.

Yours sincerely
Ms Rosalie Coleman.
