

Mr Bryan Sheppard

24th August 2004.

To The Research Director,
Parliament House
Brisbane 4000

Dear Sir matters dealing with the Queensland Constitution can't be resolved through preambles.

Successful changes only come when issues involved are put to the voting public through referendum.

Therefore the answer to the submission is a definite no.

Yours sincerely .
Mr Bryan Sheppard.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Bryan Sheppard".