BARRIERS_TO_PARTICIPATION:

Confidence and fear of failure. We are tired of entering into things that are in our minds, set up to fail, if things are set up without full government support it will be seen as 'just another black thing'. Indigenous people in government roles tend to wear several different hats and end up being responsible for all things Indigenous. By providing fast track/identified positions and developing an infrastructure to support Indigenous people to enter this field may help.

ENHANCE_PARTICIPATION_IN_THE_EXISTING_PROCESSES:

Local governments need to develop strategies to encourage Indigenous people on to their councils. From this we can create role models for our young people to aspire to.

DIRECT_INPUT_INTO_PARLIAMENT:

No, I don't think that it is a good idea. We should be given the opportunity through identified positions with a strategic target and timeframe to develop the infrastructure and support base for Indigenous people to successfully make the transition from local government/where-ever into parliament
