Dear Madam or Sir,

My husband and myself are seniors and we live in Highfields, near Toowoomba.

We were very grateful that, at least for another 12 months, the hotels and clubs + tavern did not get permission for longer trading hours.

Once it was nice and peaceful here, now sadly, we often have to put up with noise and vandalism when drunken teenagers roam around on weekend nights.

We should hope and expect that our decision-makers in Parliament will have the good sense to NEVER allow longer trading hours!

All responsible adults know that too much alcohol consumption causes nothing but trouble. And the young and irresponsible drinkers certainly don't need the encouragement of longer trading hours.

Thankful for your honest consideration I remain yours faithfully
Vanda Lee.
