To Whom It May Concern:

There is no valid reason for Hotels to be open after 11PM. Patrons need to be restrained, Governments need to show common sense and concern for people's lives instead of only being concerned about the almighty dollar. People's lives should be more important than money. It would also prevent people from being attacked and reduce the road carnage.

A big help to public safety would be if bottle shop trading hours were stopped at 9PM.

Your's faithfully,

John McLocklan
