Dear Sir

re : INQUIRY INTO PREVENTING ELECTORAL FRAUD

I refer to your correspondence on 13 September 2000 seeking submissions in relation to your inquiry into preventing electoral fraud, and advise that Council gave consideration to this matter at its meeting held on Monday, 2 October 2000.

As a result, Council is of the view that people should be required to produce suitable identification to enrol to vote and also when voting.

Thank you for the opportunity to lodge a submission, and I look forward to receiving the outcome of your inquiry.

Yours faithfully

JOHN W MATHEWS
CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER.
