Dear Mr Krause,

Data on investigations reports/media releases in relation to CCC investigations

During the course of the joint meeting between the Crime and Corruption Commission (CCC) and the Parliamentary Crime and Corruption Committee (the Committee) on 19 August 2022, the Member for Coomera asked the CCC to "provide the committee in due course with a list of all the reports, press statements and releases on matters over the last 25 years which would appear to fall foul of the view of the majority" in the matter of Carne v Crime and Corruption Commission [2022] QCA 141.

On the basis that the CCC or its predecessors would have no lawful authority to report publicly on a corruption investigation which did not involve a public hearing, we advise that:

- since 9 September 1998, a total of 32 corruption investigation reports would not have been published, and
- since January 2006, a total of 256 media releases related to corruption investigations would not have been published.

Should the Committee have any queries concerning this information, please contact the Chief Executive Officer.

Yours sincerely
